Mexican officials on campus to discuss technology transfer

Officials from five Mexican universities were on campus Monday through Thursday, Dec. 4-7, to talk about ways to share technology and other expertise.

The Mexican administrators took part in a program called "Innovative Strategies for Cooperation Among North American Universities." It focused on technology transfer and technology adaptation in the areas of food production, manufacturing and environmental sustainability.

The four-day event is part of a new initiative called TEAMING (Technological and Educational Advancements in Mexico for Innovation and Needed Growth), which stems from a food science and nutrition professor Joe Montecalvo are directing the partnership effort. They secured approximately $16,000 in funding to bring the Mexican university officials to Cal Poly from institutes in Culiacan, Mazatlan, Durango, Morelos and the state of Mexico (in which Mexico City is located).

Through the TEAMING initiative, the American and Mexican partners plan to create the Center for Technological Innovation of Culiacan, the first in a network of centers planned to include four other regional sites in Mexico.

The TEAMING initiative and the center will initially boost the techno-

Solicitation of vacation, sick leave

Employees are asked to donate sick leave or vacation credits on behalf of Rose Flores, a custodian in Facility Services, who must take several months off from work because of a medical disability.

Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help her remain in pay status during her absence.

Anyone interested in donating credit should contact Edie Griffin-Shaw, in Facility Services at ext. 5220 for the Catastrophic Leave Donation Form.

Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 total hours of sick leave and vacation credit per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Bingham, 70

Al Bingham, a retired foundation employee, died Nov. 25 at a San Luis Obispo Hospital.

Bingham was born in Healdton, Okla., and moved to San Luis Obispo County in 1963.

He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Tommie, and his daughter and her husband.

Bingham worked in the bakery for 25 years.

CPR schedule and deadlines

This is the last 1995 issue of the Cal Poly Report. The first winter quarter issue will appear Friday, Jan. 5. Copy deadline for that issue is 1 pm Friday, Dec. 29.

1996 holidays can be added to OV calendars

Approved university holidays for the 1996 calendar year are available in OfficeVision and can be added to individual calendars.

From the Office Vision main menu, simply select PF1 (process calendars), then PF10 (view calendar main menu number 2).

Then change the "starting from" date to 01/01/96 and select PF3 (add all company holidays to the calendar).

When OfficeVision has completed adding the holidays, press PF12 to return to the main menu.

For more information, call the User Support Services Help Desk at ext. 7000.

Library to close for the holidays

The Kennedy Library will be closed from 11 am to 2 pm Wednesday, Dec. 13, and from 5 pm Thursday, Dec. 21, until 7:30 am Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Faculty members who need library materials during the holidays should make arrangements with the dean's office, ext. 2345, by Thursday, Dec. 21.

New passwords to be five characters

Computer users logging on to the MVS mainframe, which includes FOCUS, TSO, OASISPRD, CICSIBP, and TELEVIEW applications, will soon need to use at least a five-character password.

The new requirement will become effective the first time a password change is required after Monday, Jan. 22.

For more information, call Mike Bernard at ext. 5518.
